APPLICATION GUIDELINES FOR SELLING ALCOHOL AT THE SEC FOR ONSITE CONSUMPTION

STAGE 1

Please forward the following information to the SECFood for approval: - SECFood.Licencing@sec.co.uk

- Application for permission to sell alcohol at the SEC.
- Proof of Licence.
- Training certificate (mandatory 2-hour training is required).
- Proof of age i.e. valid passport or driving license.

STAGE 2

On receipt of the application form and documentation, SECFood will confirm a date and time for inspection with the applicant and a representative from SEC Food. Please note that the application will not be approved without the relevant documentation.

Applicants must ensure the following details are adhered to:

- All staff must complete mandatory two-hour training in relation to alcohol sales as required by the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005. Please note that those holding a personal licence in England must complete the 2-hour mandatory training as required by the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005.

- All staff selling alcohol must be aged 18 or above.
- “Challenge 25” legislation must be adhered to. Anyone appearing below the age of 25 should be asked to produce identification proving they are over 18. Acceptable “proof of age” documents at the SEC are passport or driving license. If there is any doubt over the age of a patron and proof cannot be produced, the alcohol should not be sold.
- Handwashing Facilities with Hot and Cold Water must be provided on your stand.
- Staff should not provide or sell products to people who appear to be intoxicated or under the influence of drugs.
- The product sold should only be consumed by those who are 18 years and over.
- A notice in accordance with the provisions of Section 110 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 must be displayed on the stand where the dispensing of alcohol is taking place.
- DRINKS PROMOTIONS Off-sales: restriction on supply of alcoholic drinks free of charge or at reduced price. Premises licences and occasional licences contain a mandatory licence condition restricting irresponsible promotions. Examples of such promotions to which these paragraphs apply include:
  - buy one, get one free
  - three for the price of two
  - five for the price of four, cheapest free
  - 3 bottles of wine for £10
  - buy six, get 20% off.
  - Double spirit priced lower than a single
